11th Annual Tree Sale!

Saturday, October 9, 2010
 8 am - 2 pm
 Trees Atlanta Kendeda Center
 225 Chester Avenue

EVERYONE is invited to Trees Atlanta headquarters on October 9th for the best tree sale of the decade! In celebration of our 25th anniversary, this year's Trees Atlanta Tree Sale will feature over 1,000 native and unusual trees and plants and offer 25 species and varieties of trees, shrubs, and forest-safe vines never before offered at previous tree sales.

Special trees include bladdernut, butternut, weeping forest pansy redbud, Emerald Knight fringe tree, 'Invincible Spirit' hydrangea, and Devil's Walking Stick. Non-invasive, unusual/exotic tree and plant varieties include Henry's Dwarf, Parrotia, Colossus Oyama magnolia, Halka Ginkgo and Arnold's Promise witch hazel.

Donor Preview the Night Before

Trees Atlanta donors of $500 or more are invited to attend preview shopping on Friday night, October 8, from 4 pm-6pm.

Dateline: BeltLine Arboretum

Five Star Grant for Clear Creek Restoration

The National Fish and Wildlife Foundation awarded Trees Atlanta a Five Star Grant to restore the Clear Creek streambank between Ansley Square and Ansley Mall along the Atlanta BeltLine Arboretum. This high-visibility project is an addition to Piedmont Park's restoration project further upstream.

13-miles of Trees Inventoried

In partnership with BeltLine Inc., Trees Atlanta is near completion of 13 miles of tree inventory in the Atlanta BeltLine corridor, checking and tagging each tree with GPS coordinates. The inventory will help designers protect specimens, woodlands and select species, measure recompense and identify invasive plants.

1st BeltLine Sculpture installed

The David Landis Sculpture Cycles (right) was installed in late May. Funded by the Arthur M. Blank Foundation, the stainless whirling ginkgo stands nearly 20 feet tall and represents the Warehouse Row Natural Neighborhood of the Atlanta BeltLine Arboretum. The ginkgo tree is one of the symbolic trees of this Natural Neighborhood. There are 7 varieties of Ginkgo planted here!

Audubon's Arboretum Pamphlets Available

Trees Atlanta partner Audubon has completed all 14 Natural Neighborhood educational pamphlets for the BeltLine Arboretum. The pamphlets are available at the Trees Atlanta Kendeda Center and describe each Natural Neighborhood, its symbolic trees, trees relationships to wildlife and its symbolic bird.

A Spectacular Night: Our 25th Anniversary Celebration

June 25, 2010 was a night to remember at the Trees Atlanta Kendeda Center. 400+ attendees raised more than $80,000. Revelers enjoyed a summer buffet from Three Sisters Catering and viewed a stunning downtown skyline from the Firefly Vodka Sweet Tea rooftop lounge. The silent auction with more than 150 items and the live auction featuring an Italian villa, a St. Croix beach house and other exotic locales kept the capacity crowd excited and bidding.

Many thanks to our sponsors listed below and to all our many patrons and others listed in our donor section. Thanks to everyone who made this special quarter-century anniversary a true celebration.

NICE NEIGHBORS!

Blue Smoke Coffee is donating $1 per pound of their Canopy Blend to Trees Atlanta and Cabbagetown Market 50 cents per brewed cup and/or 50 cents per serving of Canopy Ice Cream.

Buy one or both of Highland Eye Boutique's two frame lines made from recycled materials and Trees Atlanta will receive a portion of the sale.

25 Dinner Parties for 25 Years

Please consider hosting a dinner party, BBQ, cocktail party or a similar event in the month of September or October to benefit Trees Atlanta. All hosts and every guest who donate $25 or more will be entered into a drawing for a complementary 5-course meal with wine pairings (tax and gratuity not included) at Woodfire Grill for 6 people.

Your dinner party can be an elaborate affair in your dining room, a cook out with friends or a cocktail party for the whole neighborhood. Let us know your party plans or how we can help get you started. Contact Joe Staley, Special Events and Membership Director at 404.681.4890 or email joe@treesatlanta.org

While all donations are important to us, our limitations on space only allow for us to print donations of $250.00 or more.

Help us plant and maintain trees and restore urban forests through the NeighborWoods volunteer program. Trees Atlanta's volunteer projects are fun and rewarding. All you have to do is show up, and we provide all tools and instruction. Here are some of our upcoming volunteer project locations and events locations.

Saturdays, 9:00 am—noon (unless otherwise noted)
Meeting place announced weekly

Projects are subject to change, so please visit www.treesatlanta.org for updates and to sign up.
